LATE ADDITIONS

When the catalog as originally laid out was completed it was necessary to eliminate a couple of pages or add some. I decided to add a few dozen recent acquisitions, some of which were purchased just a few days before the catalog was due at the printer.

- A The ultimate woman suffrage item. 10" wood, metal and cloth clockwork windup toy by Ives, being a caricature of Sojourner Truth at a podium delivering a lecture. When wound she twists, bends and gestures. Near mint condition in original wooded crate with "Womans Rights" paper label having 1874 patent date. Included is original handwritten letter from the Bishop of Long Island sending the toy to his sister for Christmas 1884 "...She is an evangelist...preaching is her vocation...she wishes to sojourn with you for a season..." Letter is separated and stained but well preserved - it just needs backing if so desired. Original key included. 14,750.
- B Superb quarter plate daguerreotype in excellent condition, a little minor tarnish, no damage or flaws of any kind. Leather case should be replaced - I can provide a nice one. 16,000.
- C Rare 6½ bright canary yellow War of 1812 pitcher "Captain Hull of the Constitution/Pike-Be always ready to die for your country". Small surface scratches on transfers, excellent quality professional restoration to spout and side crack. A duplicate from my own collection-the other one has restoration also. Any of these 1812 jugs are very rare in canary. 3,250.
- D Another duplicate from my collection. Rare 9½ relief molded jug by Union Porcelain Works. Scene from Bret Harte story of the Heathen Chinese - Bill Nye attacks Chinese gambler Ah Sin with huge Bowie knife, while aces tumble out from his sleeve. Reverse side King Gambrinus offers a beer to Uncle Sam. Bright blue background with red/green/blk looping around top. Very thin hairline goes down side by handle and across the underside. Excellent restoration to one tusk. I've seen three of these sell in the past 10 years, and every one was over $5,000 (I bought two of them). This was purchased in the late 80's for $4,000, and it's the only one I've seen with blue ground. 4,500.
- E Rare 3½ RWB pocket mirror FDR-Churchill-Stalin, brown paper border, excellent, only one I've seen. 350.
- F Very rare 2½ RWB, scattered very light foxing 350.
- G 2½ blue/gold Whittier CA 1956, tiny surface bump from reverse pin. Never had this before. 475.

- T Rare 1¼ blk/wht cello "Americas Explorer Son-Admiral Byrd" 175.
- U RWB cello pencil "Lindy Bread" with pic Spirit of St Louis 150.
- V One of the great rarities in political medals - 2" wht met "John Quincy Adams Pres of US March 4 1825". Reverse allegorical scene woman and Indian "Science Gives Peace and America Plenty". Dies by Furst. XF. I haven't had one of these in about 15 years. 4,500.

NOTICE.

REMEMBER, I am yet buying Bank Notes on most all of the old Southern Banks, viz: Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Alabama and Louisiana, at their depreciated value. These institutions are all closing up, and those holding bills should hand them in before they become worthless. I can be found at all times, at my office, in the MASONIC BUILDING, West Main Street, CINCINNATI, OHIO.

N. B. I desire to purchase $5,000.00 of the Seacoast County Bank of Ohio, that failed fifteen years ago, at Tiffin, Ohio. Also, $25,000 on Wisconsin Banks; the same on Iowa Banks; $500,000 on New England Banks; at least $2,000,000 on Southern Banks, and $3,000,000, or more, on Canada Banks. The proceeds of all monies sent to me, will be promptly remitted as directed.

Postmasters are courteously requested to put this circular in as conspicuous a place as possible; by so doing, a public favor will be conferred.

GEO. D. LOUNSBURY, Broker.

After doing all the late additions and the photographs from our own collections I still have a page left over. Rather than more of the same old stuff, here's a photo of Patti. It's starting to get cold around here now, so she can't wait to get down to Florida!

Maybe we'll see some of you at the FUN coin show in Orlando or at the antique shows in Palm Beach, Coconut Grove, Miami Beach, Delray or dozens of other places. We don't exhibit at any of these shows (what a horrible thought!), but we'll be walking around looking for treasures to buy for future catalogs. Patti will be easy to spot!

ITEM	PRICE	ITEM	PRICE
1	Multicolor oil painting on canvas in fine original veneer frame 19X26. Fully inscribed on reverse of canvas "USS Kearsarge v CSS Alabama off the Coast of France in 1864 - DW Nason, Epping 1871". Further inscription on the canvas details descent in Brooks family 1895 & 1921. The Epping referred to is no doubt Epping, NH, a good sized town between Portsmouth & Manchester. Generally excellent condition, no repairs, surface craquelure as expected. 4,250.	9	Miniature painting William Henry Harrison on milkglass 3 1/4 X 4 1/4, in fine quarter plate leather daguerreotype case. (mark at lower right is a reflection) 2,750.
2	Outstanding half plate daguerreotype looking down hillside with Alcatraz island at right center. Man wearing fine suit holds telescope as he stands on porch of closest wood frame building, his unkempt hair blowing in the wind. Behind him against the rail is a large wooden crate being used as a table. Atop this are a large bowl (or pan) & a mallet. The view compares with the fourth segment of the panorama at the Society of California Pioneers, but that image was taken from much further up the hill & has none of the close up detail of this photo. A similar vantage point (also distant) was used in the far left image in the Oakland Museum panorama. In this scene the daguerreotypist was obviously concentrating on the man. Image bright, sharp & clear. A rub appears at the far left, on the solid clapboard wall of the house, midway between the man & the mat. Minor mat scratches at lower & right edges. An important & superior quality gold rush image. Worn leather case. 24,000.	10	Private issue Indian peace medal in silver, 38mm (1 1/2") struck in 1911 by Edward Knox Elder, an Indian trader, for presentation to the Osage tribe in Pawhuska Oklahoma. Obverse with portrait Chief Bacon Rind in fur cap. Reverse clasped hands, peace pipe, tomahawk. Both sides with inscriptions in Indian language reportedly the first medal using Indian words. Reverse translates as "Little Coon (Elders Indian name) - Friend of Osages 1911". Only 5 pieces were struck in silver for leading chiefs, a total of 65 in German silver, brass & copper for lesser chiefs, & 400 in aluminum for other members of the tribe. The aluminum ones sell for about $300, PCAC sold a copper one in 1996 for $748, but a silver one has not appeared since I bought this perhaps ten years ago. Choice AU, one of only 5 struck, possibly unique today. 1,500.
3	Multicolor theorem on velvet, lady in long dress mourns beside urn monument inscribed "Sacred to the Memory of Washington". Church at left, large willow tree to right. 18X18 veneer frame. Minor soiling, excellent. Exceptional piece of American folk art, first quarter 19th century. 3,250.	11	Pretty gold quartz stickpin in form of lady's hand fan with handle at bottom. Four panels of quartz including V shaped center panel in rose color. 485.
4	Original tintype Custer, CDV size in gilt edged mount. Tinted cheeks, superb condition. This well known Brady image is relatively common as a CDV (Katz 78), but is exceedingly rare as a tintype (Katz 78V). A great historical image, guaranteed genuine. Minor soil to mount. 6,250.	12	Grant/Colfax ferrotype in pristine condition. Brass frame with large stars both sides read "Union & Laws". You won't find a nicer one. Catalog photo might look a little dark. 500.
5	Choice sixth plate daguerreotype Henry Clay taken from life. Excellent condition, bold & bright. Split leather case. 7,000.	13	Pristine McClellan/Pendleton ferro (couple teensy black dots in the making). Circle of stars "Union, Constitution, Laws & Flag". Superb, bright. 575.
6	Most unusual elaborate mid 19th century French mantle clock, overall 19 1/2" not counting the glass dome cover (not shown in catalog). 5 1/2" gilt brass clockface surmounts wood body. Walnut with fine floral vine inlays, with lighter contrasting trim probably of satinwood. Reverse side has open brass works & chime with very fancy gilt pendulum supported by snakes from either side of nine alternating steel & gilt rods. Recessed front panel inset with 4 1/4" Wedgwood style blue/wht jasperware plaque Lafayette. Double key wind, running condition. A lovely & eye catching item that has spent the past six months gracing the "French room" of our home. 3,250.	14	Famous 1955 Lincoln Double Die cent, all obverse legends sharply doubled. Nice XF 450.
7	Rare 18th century pottery bust 10" high, brownish red coat, yellow vest, white ruff. Reverse impressed "WASHINGTON", & interior of hollow base impressed "Ra. Wood - Burslem". Much rarer than the Enoch Wood busts done around 1820, & no similarity at all to the common blue jacketed busts from the late 19th century. I've seen two of these sell for over $5,000. 4,250.	15	Choice Civil War dogtag with the most desirable Lincoln portrait. Reverse stamped "D Gile 4th NH Inf". Daniel Gile of Manchester enlisted 1861 as 1st Sergeant, Co G, 4th NH Infantry. Promoted 1st Lieut 1862, POW in Virginia 1864, discharged May 1865. 750.
8	Unique 24" parade apron from 1888 intended to let everyone know that the wearer had been an original supporter of Lincoln in 1860. Stitched into the center is a previously unrecorded 31 star Lincoln-Hamlin flag with chocolate brown lettering having a fancy decorative "and" in center. "Harrison & Morton" in large black letters. The Republican party dominated national politics from 1860 till 1912, with Cleveland being the only Democrat to occupy the White House during that period. There are a variety of badges & ribbons from the 1880's & later that declare the wearer to be an original Wide Awake, & a few even make reference to Fremont in 1856. Excellent condition. 13,500.	16	Classic Al Smith cello in super condition 4,450.
		17	Large Grant ferrotype "The Constitution & Union Forever", reverse w/revolving mechanical perpetual calendar. Few scattered teensy scratches, two small chips on extreme edge of ferro at 12:00. The Lincoln mate to this sold for an incredible $38,500 in the Zabriskie sale (June '99). This is likely just as rare. 4,500.
		18	(catalog photo dark) Greeley-Brown jugate ferro in unusual conjoined wreaths pin. Ferros sharp & clean, couple minor lines. 3,000.
		19	Unusual silver "corps badge" with bright red inlaid enamel cross, reverse engraved "AMS - US Sanitary Commission - Army Potomac - 1864-1865". Obviously postwar, but very rare. 475.
		20	Previously unseen folder by Milner, Pools (?) Square, Sheffield, possibly a precursor to the Trafalgar Works location. 4" clip point blade, overall 9" open. German silver mounts with horn scales pinned between. Profile bust GW with "Liberty-Free Trade". Blade with stamped scene of mounted hunter & dogs chasing a deer. Few tiny dings, end cap to one of the four pins missing. Fine plus 5,000.
		21	Unique all hand engraved gold medal. Fleur de lis "Truth Temperance Integrity Always Triumphant", reverse "Presented to my Assistant Manager Wm F Sommerfield as a mark of my high estimation of his probity, energy, industry, perseverance and Good Habits - PT Barnum - 1871". Filigree engraved bar reads "Wm F.S." 4,850.
		22	Above average condition on this 1851 dated slave tag, Charleston Servant #146. Light corrosion on lower edges & top corner, all devices sharply struck. Every time I've had one of these I've received a number of calls. Accompanied by informative 25 page article. Charleston was the only city to use these badges. When a slave was hired out for day labor he would wear this to show that he had permission to be about town, and that the tax had been paid on his services. 2,450.

WANTED TO BUY - Similar slave tags marked Fisher, Carpenter, Fruiterer. Will pay top dollar for the oval tag with Liberty Cap marked "FREE".

26	Uniface 38mm Grant shell "Let Us Have Peace", USG 1868-44, reverse pin gone. Rare 150.
27	Extremely rare tan hard rubber Stephen Douglas 1860-12, Protection to All at Home and Abroad, pristine AU, have never seen another. 475.

41	Unique dark brown hard rubber ring (it fits my ring finger perfectly - maybe I'll wear it to APIC shows if nobody buys it). Raised plateau with inset ferrotype "Seymour". One tiny smooth pinprick dent in ferro, excellent, have never seen another. 600.
42	Highly desirable John Bell 1860-11, reverse Presidents House. Copper, nice AU 350.
43	Rare Lincoln storecard 1860-73C, Robbins Royce & Hard Dry Goods NYC. Copper, choice AU. The storecard reverses are much rarer than the Honest Abe reverse. 225.
44	Gilt inaugural backname button "Andrew Jackson - March 4 1829". Nice XF-AU. Had loads of calls for the last one I offered. 300.
45	Gilt backname button "Martin Van Buren - Excelsior". I bought this in 1989 & just found it in a box of unsorted smalls. Front with fancy filigree design. Choice unc. 300.

See notes to item #574 for historical significance. Generally excellent, except ¾" white border of painted tablet has a lot of flaking. This could be left alone, or restored very easily by just scraping this border & repainting. The small segment of white sky below angel also flaked, but blue sky above & all the rest of design is fine. Obviously the white paint used was inferior. If the buyer would like these white areas restored, I can do it myself if you don't mind waiting a couple of weeks till things slow down. There's nothing in the realm of immorality a white woman won't do. When you see an immoral white woman, she's being her natural self. The feeling of the black woman are instinctively warmer than the feelings of a white woman. When you see an immoral black woman, she's only copying the low habits of the white woman...the white woman brings out lust and everything low in the black man. She brings down the moral standards of the black man..." Malcolm has drawn a line down the left side margin and signed in full at bottom, indicating that he had read and approved the text. 1101	Single beaded Plains cuff with American flag design, 5½ long. Opposite side with 8-point stars done in 8 different colors. Excellent 275.
1102	9" knife with figural horn grip of Aztec (?) In headdress, inlaid wax eyes, tooled leather sheath. Mexican (?) Latter half 19th century. 175.
1103	12½ hand forged knife, clip blade, flat iron bar guards on each side, brass scales with iron pins. Mid 19th century, unusual 300.
1104	Multi trade card California Silk Manuf Co, miner enjoys a smoke while bear is tied up with the company's thread. 85.
1105	Red/wht card Chief White Cloud with a strange approach even for patent medicine era. If you are sick, send him a lock of your hair and he will diagnose and cure you! 175.
1106	Group of 7 different 1¼ celluloid badges for annual Cowboy Ball, Lamar CO, 1926-1937. Minor touch of foxing to a couple, ribbons below have some wear. 250.
1107	Crude 6" iron pistol/knife combination, fired using match or cigarette. Well rusted, believed to be a prison made weapon. Illustrated in Michael Friedmans Cowboy Culture pg 157. 400.
1108	Large 18" northern plains (Blackfoot) painted hide sheath, circa 1930's-40's. Great decoration using bright colored dyes, including painted knife. 275.
1109	Rare 28" Iroquois club with double iron blades, inset circular mirrors, extensive tack decoration. Circa 1870's-80's, old museum label indicates it was collected in 1891. Generally excellent condition. One of the small mirrors is cracked, and a number of the tacks on one side have fallen out, no doubt due to shrinkage in wood. 2,750.
1110	Very rare multicolor cigar box. Exterior shows wear, interior (illustrated) fine plus. Portrait, 2 scenes, printed signature. 700.
1111	6" carved horn folding comb in form of Indian chief. These usually exhibit significant damage, but this one is superb. The only fault is that one small tooth is missing in comb. 775.
1112	Rare coated stock calling card "Memucan Hunt - Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Texas". He was the Texas envoy to Washington DC in 1837, a strong supporter of annexation. 300.
1113	Aluminum postcard "Flathead Indians at Pow-Wow, Missoula Mont". 85.

REWARD.

Run away from my farm, near Buena Vista P. O., Prince George's County, Maryland, on the first day of April, 1855, my servant MATHEW
TURNER.

He is about five feet six or eight inches high;
weighs from one hundred and sixty to one hundred and eighty pounds; he is very black, and has a remarkably thick upper lip and neck; looks as if his eyes are half closed; walks slow, and talks and laughs loud.
I will give One Hundred Dollars reward to whoever will secure him in jail, so that I get him again, no matter where taken.

PROCLAMATION !

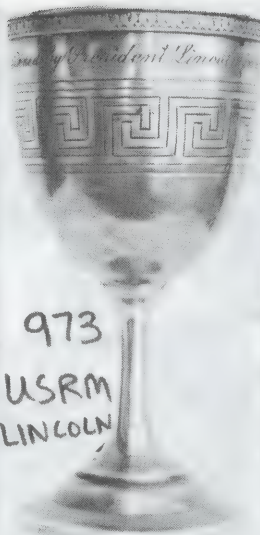

To the people of Estelle and adjoining counties.

The Gen. Commanding, takes this means of informing the people that he has not come among them to disturb them in the enjoyment of their rights, either of person or property. The Home Guards are required to come in at once and deliver up their arms, those who fail to do so will be regarded as enemies of the Government and treated accordingly. Those who comply will be treated as non-combatants, and private citizens. Private citizens who seek opportunity to ambush our soldiers commonly known as "backshooters" will be regarded as outlaws, and orders will be issued to shoot them wherever found.

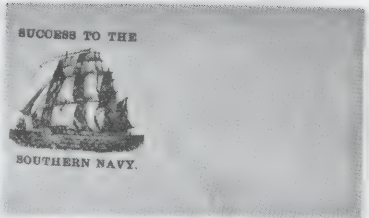

Many of our men are fired on while passing through the country, I will lay waste the entire surrounding neighborhood.

By order of
Gen. J. H. MORGAN.
R. A. ALSTON.
